

Questions over questions

When reading these lines your subconscious mind starts working. Old questions are surfacing. New ones and new ones come up as well. Whereas the "burning" questions most of the time remain in the focus of your attention. Quo vadis?

To make it clear right away: Astrology alone cannot answer your questions. Astrology is only statistics. A comprehensible clarity of all factors, aspects and influences can only be achieved with the help of an experienced astrologer.

Before you believe blindly in astrology, you first have to believe in yourself. With a combination of the old science of astrology and new psychology, I will help you to find this faith in yourself. To achieve this, I will resort to the basic characteristics of your nature and your personal history.

All you need to provide for an appointment is: Your birthDATE, your exact birthTIME and your birthPLACE.

Whether you need to solve personal problems or make business decisions - together we will find the right way.

Are you ready? Give me a call.

Info

My extensive studies on the coherencies of esoteric, different religions and cultures have led me towards astrology. To me Astrology is the old science with the most comprehensible plausibility.

Questioning is the beginning of a successful life correction. A ship in the big ocean is exposed to the wind, waves and currents. All of them cause perceptible deviations from the planned track. The captain has to check the route constantly. Sometimes we deviate from our life's course due to "heavy storms" and lose our orientation ...

In this case I would like to be your "pilot" who is guiding you through rough waters and bring you back on the right - and maybe on a completely new - way.

Inspired by the cosmic lightness the manta is gliding through our life elixir: Water.

The form of his body resembles the most stable geometric form, a triangle: AstroDelta

In spite of that the delta itself is flexible in every direction – without losing its firm shape.

Playful lightness and inner stability inspire us to cope with everyday life.

It will help you to find your true self and accompany you on your way to the inner harmony and happiness.

The lightness of Being.

Careful approach will lead to success: In the weightlessness under water I concentrate on what is important and become a stable unit with nature: This stability – completed by my knowledge and my experience – I would like to pass on to you. Abandon the dead freight. Feel free ... Start living now!

Yours
